

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is clearly a biased one. In the interest of balanced and unbiased programming, Sinclair should be required to air a piece showing the opposing viewpoint.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

I believe the FCC should prevent Sinclair from broadcasting the documentary or rescind their license.